

TOWN OF BREDENBURY

NEWSLETTER NOVEMBER 2025

Crops For Kids BBQ:

We are having our second annual Crops for Kids for Bredenburg Daycare BBQ on Thursday, November 6: 5:30 p.m. – 7 p.m. to celebrate our Harvest at the Bredenburg Hall.

Invitations have been sent to all the farmers who helped so much; invitations have been sent to the sponsors who financially support us; and invitations have been sent to the media. Daycare staff, daycare families, and public are encouraged to attend and give thanks to those that contributed to this fantastic fundraiser.

There is no charge for the event, and we encourage everyone to get together for a burger and give thanks to the Volunteers and Sponsors. A report on the amount profited will be provided at the event around 6 p.m.

We will be looking for a few volunteers to cook burgers and hotdogs please contact Naomi at 306-898-0055 if you can help us out.

Bredenburg Community Daycare:

A huge thanks to everyone that donated, bid on items for our annual auction. It was a great success, and we made $8300.00! Any items that did not get picked up can be picked up at the daycare during regular business hours.

Thank you to everyone that has been donating toys, supplies, and garden produce! We have been making great use of everything.

Just a reminder that there is no school on November 10th, and the daycare will be closed November 11th.

We are still looking for casual workers, and to fill our 6-9 shift.

Crops for kids' fundraiser was a success. To celebrate the town will be holding the Fields to Feasts supper on November 6th from 5:30-7:00pm

Keep an eye out for our cash raffle tickets, they will be available to purchase from any daycare parent or at the town office. The draw will be made on December 12th.

Office Hours:

The office is open Mondays to Thursdays 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. Closed through lunch hour.

Being a one-person office, we are also closed for banking, sick time, vacation, helping daycare or public works. Thanks for understanding.

Just a reminder if there is an emergency call our emergency phone line at 306-217-TOWN.

The office will be closed November 11 for Remembrance Day.

Bredenbury Fitness Center:

Just a reminder that we have a 24/7 fitness center. The cost for a membership is single: $35/month; Family $60/month. With yearly options also available. Call the town office for more information.

Benevity Program:

Do you work at Mosaic? Have you heard of the Benevity program? If you volunteer or give donations to an organization in Bredenbury such as Daycare, Rink, Golf Course, Fire Department, Cemetery, Hall, Spray Park, Ball Diamond etc. on your work computer you can enter those donations and Mosaic will match them.

If you worked volunteer hours enter those hours, and Mosaic will pay Bredenbury up to a maximum of $2000 for those hours to encourage volunteering. Ask Mosaic how to submit it and we will apply it to the organization you want it to apply to and will send you a receipt once we receive it (usually takes 3 months to process) Thanks!

Bredenbury Busy Bees:

The Bredenbury Busy Bees are looking for more members to join as well as President and Vice President.

Becoming a Busy Bee member can be what you make it. They have a few meetings a year and are open to hosting more events if there are enough members to help. The facility is a great place to rent for your events as well. To rent the busy bees call Donna Kitkul at 306-621-8467.

Knox United Church:

Upcoming Bredenbury services:

November 9, 2025 @ 11 am

December 14 & 21, 2025 @ 11 am

Get your tables booked for the Christmas craft/trade show on Dec. 6, 2025. Reminder of donations of baking for church bake sale.

Fall newsletter has been prepared and printed; they will be hand delivered or mailed.

Bredenbury Lions:

Chair Yoga:

Chair Zoom Yoga will resume for the winter. It will be held on Wednesdays at 12:00 p.m. (noon) at the Bredenbury Hall. It will be hosted again by Shirley and there will be no charge for those that attend as we got an Active Communities Grant. It is recommended that you bring a positive attitude, an open mind and a bottle of water. Chairs and Mats are provided.

Sound Bath:

Sound Bath will be hosted in Bredenbury on Tuesday, November 4 and December 2 at 7 p.m. in the Bredenbury Community Hall. To learn how to register reach out to Amanda at 306-744-7604. Sound bath is a great meditation technique along with beautiful sounds.

Taxes 2025:

Reminder 2025 taxes are due on or before December 31, 2025. We accept payments by credit card, e-transfer, cash, cheque or online bill payments. Search your bank for Bredenbury Utilities or Taxes and use your account number and roll number (3 numbers – add 00's if you bank requires 5 numbers) to set up online bill payments.

Utility Bills:

Utility Bills were sent out October 1 if you didn't pay by October 31 there will be 3% interest automatically added to accounts. Reminder you can pay by cash, cheque, debit, credit card, through online banking and by e-transfers. To e-transfer send it to bredenbury@sasktel.net

For those on automatic withdrawals set up at town office in December we will take out any overages you will only be contacted of the increased amount if it exceeds $20. You can be proactive and contact the town office anytime now to see if you have any overages for the last 6 months.

For those that have outstanding utility bills from previous quarter we reserve the right to turn you water off immediately. For those that have unpaid utility bills at year end you will receive a registered mail stating the amount and if still unpaid by December 31 that amount plus the Administration Fee for Registered mail will be added to your taxes.

Bredenbury Rink:

Public skating will be run by volunteers this year. All children must wear a helmet. There will be a sign in and out sheet at rink for skaters. Public skating posters will be shared on Facebook, on Rink door and on bulletin board by post office boxes as they are selected. Public skating will be cancelled if an ice rental comes up.

This year there will be a charge for public skating and all fees must be paid at town office by cash, cheque, debit or credit or by e-transfer to bredenbury@sasktel.net and in memo put public skating. The fees will be $150 a year for family, $50 a year for a single, under 5 free, $10 drop in for a single and $25 drop in for a family. There will be a cash drop off box at rink near sign in sheet, but drop-in fees can also be e-transferred.

Saturday, December 6 in Bredenbury is Christmas Day: CPKC Christmas Train/Craft Show/Public skating/Santa Pictures/Santa Clause Parade:

The CPKC Christmas Train will be in Bredenbury this year at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, December 6. The 300 Block of Railway Avenue will be closed for the event. Donations will be accepted for perishable goods at the town office prior to the event and at the event. Cheques also can be made out to Salvation Army. This year the train will host the following entertainment: Jade Eagleson and Teigen Gayse. The rink kitchen will be open after the event so you can get a bite to eat. We will also open rink for public skating from 11-1 for people to go skating after the train.

From 10-2 you can go to the Community Hall for their bi-annual craft show. There will also be coffee, sandwiches and juice their available to purchase after the Train.

Later in the evening there will be public skating from 5-7 at the rink. The rink kitchen will also be open in the evening.

The Santa Parade will be at 7:15 p.m. the same night. We encourage any business or personal families to consider putting in a float to make the event even bigger than before. The parade will start at the rink and will go down all the streets in Bredenbury. If you want to put in a float, please contact the town office and they will let the organizers now.

All this information is subject to change and more details on specifics will come.